ABOUT ME

Dr. Judy E. Vansiea holds a Doctor of Nursing Practice (DNP) Degree with a focus in Transcultural Nursing Leadership from Augsburg University in Minneapolis, Minnesota. In addition, she has two Masters Degrees. Her first one is in Mental Health Psychiatric Nursing from Stony Brook which led to her Advanced Practice Registered Nurse (APRN) and current license and certification as a Nurse Practitioner in Psychiatry. Then she received her second Master of Arts in Addiction Counseling from the Hazelden Betty Ford Graduate School of Addiction Studies, Center City, Minnesota.

Dr. Vansiea has been a Registered Nurse for almost 27 years and has worked in numerous nursing settings such as an adjunct nursing faculty, inpatient medical/surgical nursing, workers' compensation, school nursing, outpatient medical and psychiatric clinics, and nursing education and staff development. In addition, she worked over two years as a volunteer Guardian Ad Litem in Ramsey County Second Judicial District in Saint Paul, MN. Dr. Vansiea served as a (U.S.) army nurse and was commissioned as a Second Lieutenant stationed at Walter Reed Army Medical Center in Washington, DC. Currently, she is the proud owner of her mental health practice of almost 5 years.
